The Fat Girl by Andre Dubus

Summary

Characters

Louise: A young adolescent with an eating disorder. She was an emotional binge eater and used food as a coping mechanism.

Joan Marjorie Carrie: Louise's parents who were struggling to accept her for who she was.

Richard: The father of Louise who was judgemental and disapproving.

Themes

Self-acceptance versus the need to be accepted by others.

Plot

Louise, a young girl with an eating disorder, is struggling to find her place in the world. She isanken to understand why she is the way she is and her parents, Joan and Richard, are struggling to accept her.

Analysis

Andre Dubus does a great job of exploring the complexity of human relationships and the challenges of self-acceptance. The story is told in present tense, which adds to the immediacy and intensity of the events.

Conclusion

In the end, Louise learns to accept herself and her parents learn to accept her as well. The story ends with Louise feeling more at peace with herself and her relationships.

Critical Reception

Critics have praised Andre Dubus' ability to write about complex human emotions and relationships. The Fat Girl is considered one of his best works.
